Application and nomination for election

Summary of Rules for Te Awhioraki Executive Elections

For detailed information please refer to the Constitution for Te Awhioraki Māori Students' Association.

Requirements for Candidacy

Nominations shall be deemed valid by the Returning Officer provided:

- 1) Current Student: That the prospective candidate is an enrolled taura Māori. In the case of a returning President this sub-clause shall not apply.
- 2) Tumuaki: In the case of the Tumuaki the prospective candidate:
 - a) has not been elected for two (2) or more consecutive terms;
 - b) should have been a student for at least one (1) year before they were elected, as generally this will ensure the successful candidate will have relevant knowledge, skills, or experience to serve as a Lincoln University Council appointee. In the case of a returning President, this sub-clause does not apply.
 - c) must not be disqualified from membership of Council by virtue of section 171A of the Education Act 1989.
- 3) Endorsement: At least three other taura Māori endorse the nomination on the official Association Nomination Form.
- 4) Qualified: That the prospective candidate is qualified, as defined within this constitution.
- 5) Nominations: The candidate can stand for up to a maximum of two positions.

Photo, Biographical Note and Policy Statement

Candidates must supply a current and reasonable quality photo of themselves alongside a biographical notes and policy statement (blurb) when they submit their nomination form.

The length of the blurb is dependent on the position you are nominated for. If a candidate applies for two positions then they can write two separate biographical notes. The maximum length of the blurbs are:

Tumuaki – 400 Words;

Tumuaki Tuarua – 300 Words;

Kaituhituhi, Kaitiaki Pūtea and General Representatives – 200 words.

If a candidate fails to supply any of the above by the deadline they will not be disqualified from the election, but Te Awhioraki will only include their name in all promotional material.

Advertising and Promotional Materials

The campaigning period is 9am Monday 2 October to 11.59pm 11 October 2023. All materials must be taken down by the close of day on 11 October 2023. Any candidate who does not abide by this may be disqualified from the election if the Returning Officer identifies a breach of regulations.

You can promote yourself however you like provided it does not damage anything, harm anyone or otherwise bring yourself, the University or LUSA into disrepute.

There must not be any public speaking on campus on the election days.

Voting

All enrolled taura Māori at Lincoln University will be emailed a link to the online voting platform on the morning of Monday 9 October 2023, voting will open at 12 noon on this day. Voting will close at 4.00pm on Thursday 12 October. Results will be announced to the candidates first, and then the student body.

Good Faith

All candidates are expected to act in good faith and abide by the regulations set out in the Elections Policy AND Elections Procedure, as well as the Constitution.
