5. Tumuaki update:

5.1 Attended the first Ahumairaki of the year. Tumuaki Takirua put forward a lot of things that came from the AGM such as scholarships, Māori accommodation and reiterated how it would be important for there to be a recruitment plan for Māori University students.

5.2 DVC talked to Tumuaki Takirua and thinks the recruitment idea is a good idea. Wants to meet with Tumuaki Takirua to discuss what this would look like.

5.3 DVC wants to take some of the executive up north to some schools near the end of year.

5.4 There was enthusiasm regarding the scholarship idea. Talks of how we can work with main companies that take on students from Lincoln and how to work on this.

5.5 There was concern regarding the Māori accommodation. Culture needs some work.

5.6 Whare is still progressing. The consent is still being worked on. There will be discussions of the tikanga and kawa of whare with Taumutu. Te Awhioraki potentially included in this korero.

7. Executive Remuneration Review:

7.1 LUSA have proposed that they would like to increase the amount their exec is getting paid, so that it is consistent with the living wage. In order for LUSA and Te Awhioraki to be parallel associations, Te Awhioraki would need to increased their wages.

7.2 Workload doesn't need to increase; wages just need to reflect the current living wage within Aotearoa.

7.3 Grace moved the motion to accept the proposed changes made within the proposal and Cheyenne seconded it. Those who were present agreed unanimously. Tumuaki Takirua will discuss with Samuel Hokopaura regarding this post meeting.

8. Sem 2 noho dates:

8.1 Huinga Taurira: 10th – 14th September

8.2 Collaboration with UC and Otago University 29th – 31st August (Trip to Dunedin).

10. Campus Services Council:

10.1 Tumuaki Takirua have been to a few hui.

10.2 Council has decided there will need to be an increase in student levies, as the student services needs to be updated.

10.3 Te Awhioraki levies will not increase.

10.4 Matt asked if Te Awhioraki can have their own designated parking, similar to LUSA. Is there potential for them to go next to the LUSA parks.

11. General business:

11.1 Thursday and Friday before semester starts is the student services expo in Waimarie. Cheyenne to attend this.

11.2 Re-O week will have Te Pahi Pāti and clubs day. Think about what we want to do for engagement. No hot kai this time but packeted food is a good idea. Wiremu, Samuel and Matt to plan this event and organise things for it.

11.2 Posters to be made for student services expo and get the flag.

12 Karakia:

12.1 Karakia at 11:00am to close.
